

Teaching Faculty-Music (Tenure-Track Position)
Music Department

Tenure-Track position at Kansas Wesleyan University, Music Department, 100 E. Claflin, Salina, KS 67401. Provide classroom instruction in applied piano courses, piano literature courses and outcome assessment as an integral part of all course instructions. Provide piano accompaniment for: university large/small group student vocal ensembles; university large/small group student instrumental ensembles (as needed); university student Jazz Band ensemble (as needed); university student vocal solo recitals; university student instrumental solo recitals; university departmental/studio student vocal recitals; university departmental/studio student instrumental recitals; university student vocal ensemble concerts/performances; university student instrumental ensemble concerts/performances; and university student ballet rehearsals/performances (as needed). Participate in piano performances as solo artist; research, publication, guest lecturing, consultation and other related scholarly activities on behalf of the University. Position requires Master's or equivalent-level degree in Music or closely-related field, and 2 years of experience performing the duties of this position. Email C.V., KWU application (KWU Application) and unofficial transcript to Ms. Becky Mathews at HR@kwu.edu.

Kansas Wesleyan University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Americans with Disabilities Act employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply.